

Republic Day Celebrations 2015, IFGTB, Coimbatore

The 66th Republic Day Celebrations on 26th January 2015 were held at the Institute of Forest Genetics and Tree Breeding (IFGTB), Coimbatore. Shri. R.S. Prashanth, IFS, Director of the institute hoisted the National Flag and addressed the gathering. He congratulated the efforts of the staff of the Institute for displaying team spirit in all the activities of the Institute and he urged the staff to move on with the same enthusiasm and zeal. This was followed by speeches of children on various themes and sports events were organized for children of the staff and for staffs of the institute. The celebrations ended with distribution of books and prizes to children of the staffs who excelled in academics and for children and staff who actively participated in various sports events of the day.

