

Visit of trainees of Forest Training College Mahilong, Jharkhand at IFP Ranchi

SFD Personnel of Jharkhand undergoing training at Forest Training College, Mahilong visited Institute of Forest Productivity, Ranchi on 19/12/2013 during a field study tour. Demonstration and explaining of various research activities of the Institute was made by Shri Ravi Shankar Prasad, Research officer, Forest Physiology and Molecular Biology Division. Much enthusiasm was expressed by the trainees on clonal techniques, Vegetative multiplication gardens, Oil distillation process, Bamboosetum, and conservation efforts for 21 RET species of the region prescribed by Botanical Survey of India under the MoEF sponsored Lead Garden project (PI- Dr. Sanjay Singh, Scientist- E).

