

Exposure Visit of Range officers of Jharkhand State at IFP Ranchi

Seventeen Range Officers of Jharkhand State visited Institute of Forest Productivity, Ranchi, accompanied with Sri A.K.Manjul Assistant Director Forest Training School, Mahilong on 21/01/2014 for an exposure tour. They were participating in "Three Days Workshop on Conservation of Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services" from 20-22 January 2014. Dr. Sanjay Singh Scientist 'E' and Head, Forest Physiology & Molecular Biology Division delivered a lecture on Ecosystem and Environmental Conservation. Sh. Ravi Shankar Prasad, Research officer, and Sh. Hari Shankar Lal briefed the Range Officers about the various research activities going on the field. The Range Officers took active interest in conservation of 21 RET species, over 200 medicinal plants, oil distillation unit, Bamboosetum, Magroove species in the Lead garden of the Institute. Modern nursery practices and clonal propagation procedures were also demonstrated to the visitors.

