

DIRECTOR, IWST DELIVERING A LECTURE TO THE OFFICERS AND OTHER PERSONNEL OF INDIAN NAVY AT SHIPWRIGHT SCHOOL, VISHAKHAPATNAM

On 11th April 2012, the Director delivered a lecture to the officers and other personnel on the perspective of wood use and protection in various applications by the Indian Navy at Shipwright School followed by a visit to the wood workshop and hull building unit.

On the last day (13th), the Director visited fishing harbour at the Visakhapatnam Port and field test site of the Wood Biodegradation Centre (Marine) at the Slipway Complex of the outer harbour and inspected various tests being carried out under different projects.

