

RFRI celebrates 67th Independence Day

Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat (Assam) celebrated 67th Independence Day with fervour and gaiety. National Flag was unfurled in the forecourt of the Institute by Dr. A. P. Singh, senior most Scientist of the Institute. The Home Guard Jawans of RFRI performed the March-past and offered the National Salute. Speaking on the occasion, Dr. Singh remembered the sacrifices of our freedom fighters. He offered greetings and wished a happy and prosperous Independence Day to members of RFRI family. He appealed to all members of RFRI family to work hard so as to make this Institute one of the most prosperous Institutes not only in India, but also in South East Asia.

To mark the occasion, drawing competition was organized among the children and other members of RFRI family. The competition was conducted in three categories and one theme was assigned to each category as follows:

SN	Category	Theme of Drawing
1	Up to Class V	Natural Scenery
2	From Class VI	Celebration of India's Independence Day
3	For Adults	Ugly Face of Terrorism

Sri R. K. Kalita, Scientist & Estate Office meticulously planned and conducted the entire programme. He was assisted by Sri Nilabh Chandra Das, Sri Ajit Gogoi, Sri Arabinda Deka, Sri Prasanta Saikia and Sri Niren Das.
