

RFRI Participates at National Bamboo Handicraft Mela at Dehradun

Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat (Assam) participated at the National Bamboo Handicraft Mela at Forest Research Institute, Dehradun from 25th to 27th November, 2014 organized on the occasion of 13th Silviculture Conference-2014.

RFRI showcased its wide range of bamboo products at the Mela. Sri R. K. Kalita, Head, Forestry Extension Division led a contingent of three Craftsmen of RFRI, namely Sri Mohan Saikia, Sri Debo Bora and Sri Nripen Gogoi and installed the RFRI stall. Large number of people visited the RFRI Stall during the three days period.

Dr. Ashwani Kumar, Director General, ICFRE visited the RFRI stall and appreciated the efforts of Scientists and Craftsmen of RFRI, Jorhat.

Wide range of products such as Easy Chair, Center Table, Rack, File Cover Holder, Japi, Clothe Hanger, Hair Clips, Stool, National Flag, Tray, Flower Vase, Dry Flower, Comb, Photo Frame, Pen, Pen Stand etc were displayed and also offered for sale.

National Bamboo Handicraft Mela at Forest Research Institute, Dehradun

RFRI Stall at National Bamboo Handicraft Mela at Forest Research Institute, Dehradun

RFRI Stall at National Bamboo Handicraft Mela at Forest Research Institute, Dehradun

Dr. Ashwani Kumar, DG, ICFRE visiting RFRI Stall

Dr. Ashwani Kumar, DG, ICFRE with Scientists and Master Craftsman of RFRI, Jorhat

Dr. N. S. Bisht, Director, RFRI at RFRI Stall

Mr. R. K. Kalita, Scientist-in-charge with Master Craftsmen at RFR I Stall

Master Craftsmen at work at RFR I Stall

Visitors at RFR I Stall