

TRAINING PROGRAMME FOR B.Sc. (FORESTRY) STUDENTS OF GURU GHASIDAS UNIVERSITY, BILASPUR

The Division of Genetics & Plant Propagation, Tropical Forest Research Institute (ICFRE), Jabalpur, organized a Training Program for B.Sc. (Forestry) VII Semester Students of Guru Ghasidas University, Bilaspur from 23.09.2013 to 05.10.2013.

During the Training Program, lectures in the areas of Genetics, Tree Improvement, Plant Tissue Culture, Forestry Extension, Forest Pathology, Forest Entomology, Biodiversity, Non-Wood Forest Produce,

Agroforestry, Silviculture, Tree Seed Technology, Ecology & Environment

were arranged for the students. They were also exposed in local field visits as well as laboratory visits like Forest Pathology, Seed Technology, Insectaries, Tissue Culture, Molecular Biology Laboratory, Medicinal Plant Nursery, Museum etc. with explanations and discussions. Some hands-on programs were also demonstrated for them like in Plant Tissue Culture, Seed Technology, Forest Pathology etc. The training was further enriched by two local visits at the State Forest Research Institute and Jawaharlal Nehru Krishi Vishwavidyalaya at Jabalpur. This Program was convened by Dr. Y. Mishra, Head, Genetics & Plant Propagation Division and coordinated by Dr. R. Sett, Scientist D of the same Division.