

Visit of the students of Maharashtra School, Jabalpur to Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur

25 Students of Maharashtra School Jabalpur, visited the institute on 04/2/2013. Their visit was organized by the Forest Extension division to demonstrate facilities available and various research activities in the institute. They showed keen interest especially in Tissue culture activities and various methods to control insect pests and plant diseases.

Student visit from Maharashtra School of 4 Feb 13