

CFRHRD, Chhindwara organized One Day Training Programme on Insect Pest of important Medicinal Plants and their biological control measures

One day training programme on “Insect pest of important medicinal plants and their biological control measures” was organized by Centre for Forestry Research and Human Resource Development, Chhindwara and Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur on 19.12.2013. The training programme was especially organized for State Forest Department officials (SFDs) and farmers. Shri. Har Prasad, Deputy Conservator of Forests welcomed all the participants on behalf of the Director, Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur and Director, CFRHRD, Chhindwara and briefed the participants about the research and extension activities of the centre.

Dr. P. B. Meshram, Scientist –F, TFRI, Jabalpur was the chief resource person of the training while Dr. Subhash Chandra, Scientist – C, TFRI, Jabalpur, Dr. Vishakha Kumbhare, Scientist –C & Training Co-Ordinator and Smt. Shalini Bhowate, Research Officer of CFRHRD, Chhindwara and Shri. R.K. Malviya RA-II, TFRI, Jabalpur were the resource persons. Shri. N.D. Khobragade, Scientist – C, Shri. A.J.K. Asaiya, Research Officer and Smt. Mamta Meshram, Research Officer were also present. The training proved to be very useful for the participants as indicated in the feedback received and the need of increasing frequency of such training programmes was felt.

