

Research Advisory Group meeting for scrutinizing & finalizing the research project proposals initiated at T.F.R.I., Jabalpur

Research Advisory Group (RAG) meeting was organized in Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur (MP) on 5-6 October, 2016. During these two days of RAG meeting, 15 new research project proposals related to thrust areas i) Managing forests and forests products for livelihood support and economic growth, ii) biodiversity conservation & ecological security, iii) Forests & climate change and iv) Forest genetic resource management & Tree management were fine-tuned after exhaustive deliberations & suggestions from the eminent RAG members belonging to various field of research & management. These projects will be very helpful for the sustainable management of forests as well as livelihood support & economic growth of rurals, tribals and central India at large.

At the outset, Dr. U. Prakasham, Director, TFRI welcomed the members. Dr. U. Prakasham, Director TFRI welcomed all the distinguished members & participants. He informed the august gathering that technologies developed by TFRI are being transferred to the stakeholders and they are getting benefitted from them. Shri P. Subramanyam, Group Co-ordinator (Research) TFRI briefed the RAG members about the new initiatives and research activities going on in the Institute.

On the occasion, the members appreciated the efforts of TFRI for its research works in different fields and transferring the developed technologies to various stakeholders.

Glimpse of meeting

