Importance of National Civil Service Day

- ▶ On 21st April 1947 Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel addressed the probationary officers at the All India Administrative Service Training School, Delhi.
- ▶ In his address, he called Civil Servants, the 'Steel Frame of India'. This meant that civil servants, employed at various levels of the government, act as supporting pillars of the country's administrative system.
- ▶ Since 2006 it has been celebrated as National Civil Service Day on 21 April.
- ▶ Prime Minister's Awards for Excellence in Public Administration are given to Districts/Implementing Units for implementation of Priority programmes and innovation categories.
