

SKILL DEVELOPMENT TRAINING ON AGARWOOD CULTIVATION AND ARTIFICIAL INOCULATION

Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat (Assam) conducted Skill Development Training on Agarwood Cultivation and Artificial Inoculation during 19th to 21st April, 2022. There were seven trainees – five from Assam and one each from Gujarat and Maharashtra. Dr. RSC Jayaraj inaugurated the training programme. Dr. R K Borah, Scientist ‘G’ was the Course Director of the Training. Wide range of topics such as Agarwood; Its Importance, Nursery and Cultivation Management, Legal Requirements for cultivation and export of Agarwood, Distillation Process of Agarwood and Product Diversification of Agarwood, Artificial Induction of Agarwood apart from hands-on training and field tour were covered during the training.

