

Report on Women Empowerment Programme held on 3rd November, 2022 under AzadiKaAmritMahotsava (AKAM)

In a series of AKAM activities, first Women Empowerment program for scholars and employee was organized at Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur on 3rd November, 2022. The aim of the programme was to enhance their skills and provide livelihood, besides improvement in quality of work in the workplace.

The programme was started with the welcome address by Dr. Nanita Berry, Head, Forest Extension Division, TFRI. She briefed about the livelihood activities for improvement in quality of work to the group. She further emphasized on development of skill and tackling situation at workplace besides equipping themselves to overcome the problem.

Dr. Maitreyee Kundu, Head, Silviculture Forest Management and Agroforestry division interacted with the group and shared her views during the event. She opined on changes meted out in recent past and tackling the situation, remaining vigilant and alert to overcome problems for higher output in the field of forestry.

The programme was successfully completed with the assistance of Manoj Joshi, Raghendra Mehra, Ekta and Rinki, Women scholars and technicians of the Institute.

