

Report on “Healthy Soils: The foundation of healthy food and better environment”

Celebration of AzadikaAmritMahotsav

Theme: “Sustainable development under the concept of LiFE”

On December 5, 2022, Forest Ecology and Climate Change Division, Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur has organised a programme on "Healthy Soils: The foundation of healthy food and better environment " under the theme "Sustainable development under the concept of LiFE" as a part of AzadikaAmritMahotsav. Under this programme, Dr.JangamDeepika, Scientist-B attended National seminar cum workshop “Managing soil carbon for monetising carbon credits to benefit Indian farmers” on the occasion of World Soil Day with the theme “Soils where food begins” organised by Dept. of Forestry, Wildlife and Environmental sciences, Guru GhasidasVishwavidyalaya, Bilaspur. She delivered lead talk on “Dynamics of Soil organic carbon and carbon sequestration under different land use systems” and also interacted with the farmers during farmer’s session.