

Report on “One day programme in Morena Forest Division, Madhya Pradesh for creating awareness on recognition of natural resources linked to rural livelihoods in Chambal ravines”

Celebration of AzadikaAmritMahotsav

Theme: “Sustainable development under the concept of LiFE”

On December 05, 2022, Forest Ecology and Climate Change Division, Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur has organised a programme on "Creating awareness on recognition of natural resources linked to rural livelihoods in Chambal ravines" under the theme "Sustainable development under the concept of LiFE" as a part of AzadikaAmritMahotsav. Shri.Raghvendra Singh, DeepakGupta and Khilendra Kumarhaveinteracted with the farmers of Morena. Theycreated awareness on importance of natural resources in their livelihood and how to conserve the soil from water erosion by plantation of treesin Chambal ravines. A total of 15 members actively participated in the program.

