

VVK TRAINING AT DIMAPUR, NAGALAND

Rain Forest Research Institute, Jorhat (Assam) conducted two-day Skill Development Training for Frontline Staffs and Farmers at State Environment and Forest Training Institute, Dimapur (Nagaland) during 25-26 August, 2022. The Training was attended by 25 Frontline Staffs and 5 Farmers, Students. The Training was inaugurated by Shri Raj Priy Singh, IFS, Conservator of Forest (RPU), Dimapur in presence of Shri R. K. Kalita, Head, Extension Division, RFRI, Jorhat and Shri M. Shakiba Yimchunger, IFS, Director, SEFTI, Dimapur (Nagaland). Shri Kumud Bora, Technical Officer, RFRI, Jorhat delivered a presentation on bamboo nursery, propagation, cultivation, preservation during Skill Development Training at SEFTI, Dimapur on 25 August, 2022.

Shri Rajarshi Bhattacharyya, Technical Officer, RFRI, Jorhat delivered a presentation on 'Vermicomposting: Waste to Wealth' during Skill Development Training at SEFTI, Dimapur on 25 August, 2022.

Shri R. K. Kalita, Scientist, RFRI, Jorhat delivered two presentations on Agarwood and Bamboo Applications for livelihood generation during Skill Development Training at SEFTI, Dimapur on 26 August, 2022.

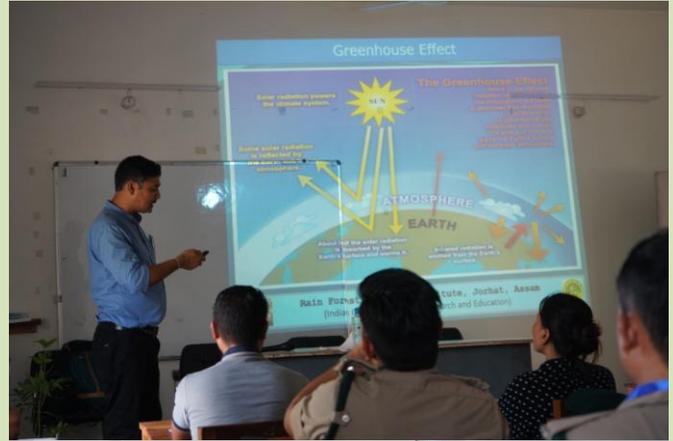

Certificates were distributed to the participants at the valedictory Session.

VVK Training at Dimapur, Nagaland | 2022

GLIMPSES OF THE TRAINING PROGRAMME

VVK Training at Dimapur, Nagaland | 2022

VVK Training at Dimapur, Nagaland | 2022

