

INSTITUTE OF FOREST PRODUCTIVITY, RANCHI
VIGILANCE AWARENESS WEEK
31ST OCTOBER – 5TH NOVEMBER, 2016

Vigilance awareness week was celebrated at the Institute of Forest Productivity (IFP), Ranchi during 31st October to 5th November 2016. Commencing the week, on 31st October, Dr. Shamim Akhtar Ansari, Director, IFP Ranchi administered the vigilance pledge to the officers and staff of the institute. He called for creating awareness to ensure transparency and accountability in all spheres of work and life. He also said that vigilance was an integral part of management for continuous improvement. He urged the employs to work in an ethical and systematic manner.

According to this year's theme of 'Public participation in promoting integrity and eradicating corruption', slogan writing contest and quiz competition were held in the institute for all officers, staff and their family members. The concluding programme of the vigilance awareness started with a self motivational song by Sh. Karam Singh Munda, Sh. Amit Saha and Sh. Pradeep Kumar Gupta. Quiz programme was organized by Dr. Animesh Sinha, Scientist E & Vigilance Officer, Shri Aditya Kumar, Scientist C, Mrs. Ruby S. Kujur, Scientist C and Shri Dipak Kumar Das, Research Officer. Winners of slogan writing contest and quiz competition were facilitated with memento by the Director of the Institute.

The slogan writing contest was won by Sh. Zeeshan Danish for best slogan with pictorial representation. The winning team of the quiz competition included Sh. Ravindra Raj Lal, Sh. Ashutosh Kumar Pandey, Sh. Umesh Yadav and Sh. Neeraj Baskey.

The concluding remarks were presented by Dr. Animesh Sinha, Vigilance Officer wherein he emphasized on transparency in administrative works. He also informed that the institute is going to adopt e-tendering within 3-4 months. In the closing ceremony Dr. Sanjay Singh, Scientist E, Dr. Malabika Ray, Scientist D, Dr. P. K. Das, Scientist D and other officers and staff of the institute were present.

