

Report of National Conference on Tree Improvement

Research in India: Current Trends and Future

National Conference on Tree Improvement Research in India: Current Trends and Future Prospects is being organized by Institute of Wood Science and Technology (IWST). The event was inaugurated by Sri. K.S. Sugara IFS, Managing Director, Karnataka Forest Development Corporation, Prof. H.Y. Mohan Ram, Doyen of Indian Botany was also present (2nd & 3rd February 2017). All the dignitaries stressed need for systematic tree improvement programmes for improved productivity and solving pest problems in forest species. Sri. Surendra Kumar IFS, Director, IWST stressed the need for arriving at a National Policy on tree improvement and focus on a product based improvement programs.

A total of 105 delegates participated in the conference.

