

Constitution Day was celebrated at RFRI on 26.11.2016

On the occasion of the Constitution Day, the Preamble to the Constitution was read out and explained by Dr. R.S.C. Jayaraj, IFS, Director, RFRI to the employees of the Institute and to the contract labour engaged through the service provider. The contract labour showed greater interest in knowing about the provisions of the Constitution, and raised many queries and these were all answered to their satisfaction, translated into Assamese by Shri Putul Hazarika, RA-I.

The concept behind the words, “Sovereign”, “Socialist”, “Secular”, “Democratic”, and “Republic” were explained in detail. The objectives of the Constitution, viz., Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity were all elaborated. The audience actively participated in the discussions.

