

27th Research Advisory Group Meeting held at Tropical Forest Research Institute, Jabalpur

Contributing to the forestry research for the benefit of the forest communities, tribals and villagers, Tropical Forest Research Institute organized its 27th Research Advisory Group meeting. The meeting constituted a core group of think tanks from forestry and environmental and agricultural sector, including Dr. S. K. Mandal, PCCF (R/E/JFM), Madhya Pradesh; Dr. S.H. Patil, PCCF (Production and Management), Maharashtra; Shri Anil Kumar Sahoo, APCCF (Research/Extension), Chhattisgarh, Dr. Alka Bhargava, Jt. Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, New Delhi and Dr. P. K. Shukla (Retd.), Ex. PCCF Madhya Pradesh. Various other representatives from agricultural and forestry institutes and universities like Shri. Ch. Murlikrishna, Director, SFRI; Dr. Anil Kumar, Director, ICAR-CAFRI, Jhansi; Dr. Dhirendra Khare, Director (Research Services) JNKVV, Jabalpur, Dr. S. S. Rao, Dean, IGKVV, Raipur, AGM, NABARD, CCF (R&E), CCF (WP), DFO (T), Jabalpur and others Scientists from Directorate of Weed Science, Jabalpur, Guru Ghasidas University, Bilaspur; IGKVV& JNKVV and others from NGOs also constituted the advisory group. Dr. Vimal Kotiyal, ADG, ICFRE joined in through video-conferencing from Dehradun.

Dr. G. Rajeshwar Rao, Director, TFRI welcomed the dignitaries and introduced them to the ongoing research works and research collaborations with various external government and non-governmental agencies like State Forest Departments of M.P., Maharashtra and Chhattisgarh, ICAR, SAIL, NTPC, RELIANCE, Adani pvt. Ltd. etc. He also briefed about some of the research projects submitted for funding like Greening of urban and peri-urban areas, Use of Bamboo in agroforestry to increase farmer's income and under Green Climate Fund. Dr. P. B. Meshram, Group Coordinator Research, TFRI presented activities of the Institute to acquaint the dignitaries with the research work of the institute. Three technical bulletins on Khamer (Gmelina arborea), Lac cultivation and Chironji (Buchananialanzan) were also released during the inauguration of the meeting by the dignitaries.

New research projects presented in RAG included 'Formulation of multiherb nutraceutical food products for tribal woman and girls; Development of demonstration model for dissemination of non-destructive harvesting, processing and value addition techniques developed by TFRI for various Non Timber Forest Products; Exploration of forestry species for development of adhesive material for incense sticks; Biofertilizers for forest nursery seedlings; ecological restoration models for coal mine spoils in Pench area, Development of digitalized web and mobile app of herbarium, insectary and fungarium' of the institute. The experts provided inputs for improving the research projects.

The post lunch session constituted the discussion on the progress of 24 on-going projects of TFRI, funded by ICFRE. The dignitaries also visited TFRI museum, Archnarium and Agroforestry demonstration plot.

Glimpses of the Programme

Welcome of dignitaries by Dr. G. Rajeshwar Rao, Director, TFRI

Release of Technical bulletins during RAG 2018

Discussion among members during RAG

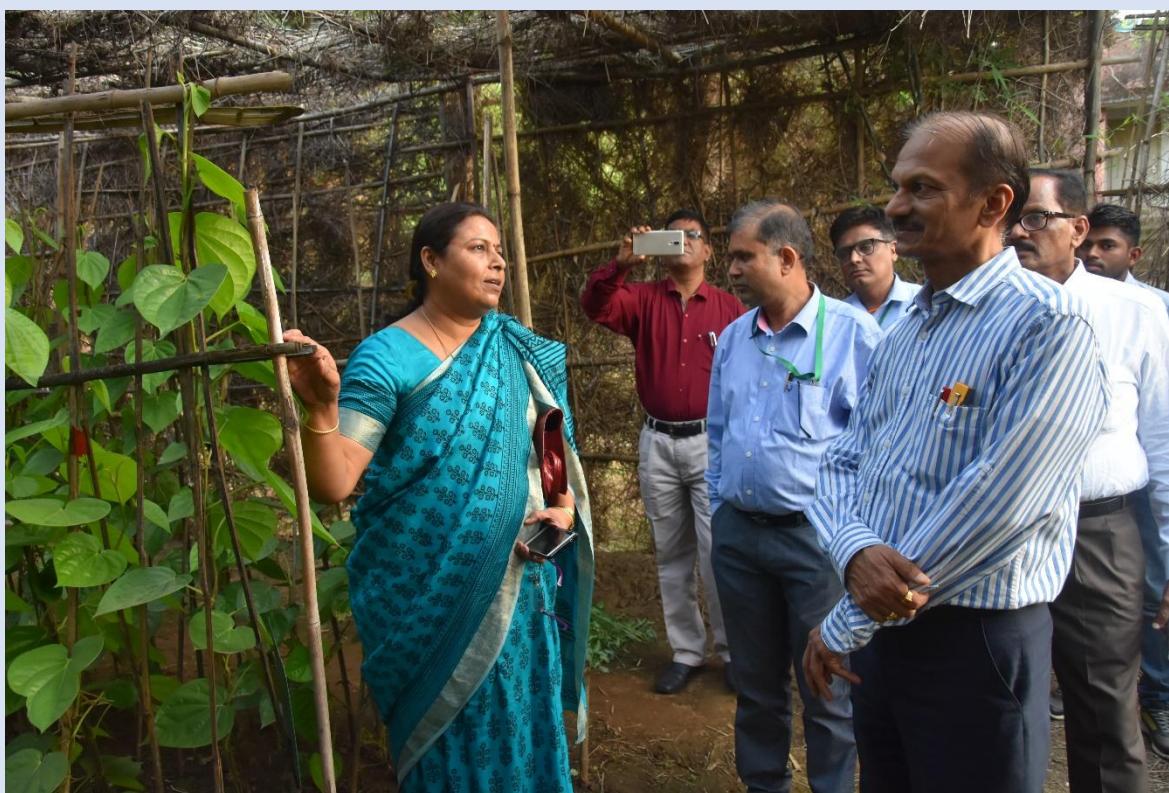

Visit of Dignitaries to Arachnarium

Visit of Dignitaries to TFRI Museum

Visit of Dignitaries to agroforestry demonstration plot at TFRI

Technical bulletins released during RAG meeting

■ Staff Reporter

CONTRIBUTING to the forestry research for the benefit of the forest communities, tribals and villagers, Tropical Forest Research Institute organised its 27th Research Advisory Group meeting, on Wednesday.

The meeting constituted a core group of think tanks from forestry and environmental and agricultural sector, including Dr. S. K. Mandal, PCCF (R/E/JFM), Madhya Pradesh, Dr S H Patil, PCCF (Production and Management), Maharashtra, Anil Kumar Sahoo, APCCF (Research/Extension), Chhattisgarh, Dr Alka Bhargava, Joint Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture & Farmers Welfare, New Delhi and Dr P K Shukla (Retd.), Ex PCCF Madhya Pradesh. Various other representatives from agricultural and forestry institutes and universities like Ch. Murikrishna, Director, SFRI, Dr. Anil Kumar, Director (I/C), ICAR-CAFRI, Jhansi, Dr Dhirendra Khare, Director (Research Services) INKVV, Jabalpur and others from NGOs also constituted the advisory group. Dr. Vimal Kotiyal, ADG, ICFRE joined in through video-conferencing from Dehradun. Dr G Rajeshwar Rao, Director, TFRI welcomed the dignitaries and introduced them to the ongoing research works and research collaborations with various external government and non-governmental agencies like State Forest Departments of MP, Maharashtra and Chhattisgarh, ICAR, SAIL, NTPC, Reliance, Adani Pvt. Ltd. etc. He also briefed about some of the research projects submitted for funding like Greening of urban and pre-urban areas, Use of Bamboo in agroforestry to increase farmer's income and under Green Climate Fund. Dr P B Meshram, Group Coordinator Research, TFRI presented activities of the Institute to acquaint the dignitaries with the research work of the institute. Three technical bulletins on Khamer (Gmelina arborea), Lac cultivation and Chironji (Buchananianalanzan) were also released during the inauguration of the meeting by the dignitaries.

Dignitaries releasing technical bulletins during RAG Meeting at TFRI.

New research projects presented in RAG included 'formulation of multi-herb nutraceutical food products for tribal woman and girls, development of demonstration model for dissemination of non-destructive harvesting, processing and value addition techniques developed by TFRI for various Non Timber Forest Products, exploration of forestry species for development of adhesive material for incense sticks, bio-fertilizers for forest nursery seedlings, ecological restoration models for coal mine spoils in Pench area, Development of digitalized web and mobile app of herbarium, insectary and fungarium' of the institute. The experts provided inputs for improving the research projects.

मानकों की कसौटी पर परखे गए 10 रिसर्च प्रोजेक्ट

जबलपुर. उष्ण कटिबंधीय वन अनुसंधान संस्थान में बुधवार को हुई बैठक में विशेषज्ञों ने 10 नए रिसर्च प्रोजेक्ट को देश की परिस्थितियों और अन्य मानकों की कसौटी पर परखा। वीडियो काफ़ेँसिंग के माध्यम से भारतीय वानिकी अनुसंधान एवं शिक्षा परिषद, देहरादून के सहायक महानिदेशक (अनुसंधान) डॉ. विमल कोटियाल ने भी सुझाव दिए। संशोधन के बाद ये प्रोजेक्ट रिसर्च पॉलिसी कमेटी देहरादून की बैठक में शामिल होंगे। बैठक में संस्थान के निदेशक डॉ. जी. राजेश्वर राव, डॉ. पीबी मेश्राम, डॉ. अविनाश जैन, डॉ. सुमित चक्रवर्ती मौजूद थे।

पत्रिका

Thu, 11 October 2018
epaper.patrika.com

TFRI's Research Advisory Group meeting today

■ Staff Reporter

TROPICAL Forest Research Institute (TFRI) will organise its 27th Research Advisory Group (RAG) meeting at the institute on October 10. The agenda of the meeting will be to discuss and finalise the new research projects on different aspects of forestry.

The meeting will constitute a core group of think-tanks from forestry and environmental sector, including Dr S K Mandal, PCCF (R/E/JFM), Madhya Pradesh, Dr S H Patil, PCCF (Production and Management), Maharashtra, Anil Kumar Sahoo, APCCF (Research/Extension), Chhattisgarh, Dr Alka Bhargava, Joint Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, New Delhi and Dr P K Shukla (Retd.), Ex PCCF Madhya Pradesh. A total of 10 research projects on various themes will be presented in the meeting.

